

Employees are prohibited from soliciting from children on school premises during school hours.

Employees are prohibited from conducting any business transactions for any and all types of political campaigns or candidates or for profit during school hours.

Employees engaged in the sale of raffle tickets or other items for support of student-related organization support shall do so in a manner and time that will not interfere with the proper conduct of any school function or interfere with an employee's effective performance of duties.

The Board of Education may sanction non-school, District-wide, charitable fundraising drives which may be conducted on school premises and during work hours.