

Employees shall neither solicit nor accept personal gratuities, favors or anything of monetary value from contractors as merchants with whom the Pojoaque Valley School District is doing business or who are attempting to sell goods or services to the District. This policy does not preclude acceptance of prizes, food or drinks of a social nature or participation in a social event as a guest or invited speaker.