

For immediate release:

The Rocky Mountain Children's Choir from Denver, Colorado, is excited to announce that its treble ensemble, the Summit Singers, will be touring and presenting concerts in the Santa Fe, New Mexico area March 25-27, 2017. All concerts are free and open to the public!

The Rocky Mountain Children's Choir, founded in 1995, is a comprehensive choral music education program that brings children ages 6 to 18 together from throughout the Denver area in a nurturing and inclusive environment. Children learn to sing and read music while they develop self-confidence, build relationships, strive for excellence, and gain an appreciation and respect for one another.

The Summit Singers is a traditional children's choir made up of more than 50 boys and girls ranging in age from 10-15. This experienced performing choir consists of singers who have a strong foundation in choral singing and performance. The Summit Singers perform regularly throughout the year for a wide variety of audiences at many special events.
